

The Diary of Anne Frank | Sensory Intense Moments List

Before you see the show: This play intentionally includes intense technical and emotional moments. Below is a list of these moments so you can be ready for them when they happen (Contains Spoilers!).

Indicator Lights: Moments notated with an  icon are heightened emotion or mild technical effects. Moments notated with an  icon are moments that may be surprising or include jarring technical effects. These moments will be indicated using a glow stick during our Sensory Friendly performance. Two staff members at the front of the stage will hold up glow sticks 10 - 20 seconds before the moment happens.

ACT 1

Moment	Time	Description
	00:00	Lights go to a blackout.
	13:30	Mr. Frank yells at Anne, grabs her arm as she tries to walk downstairs.
	16:00	Lights go to a blackout, sounds of a Hitler speech.
	21:50	Peter yells at Anne.
	27:30	Anne spills milk on Mrs. van Daan's coat. Mrs. van Daan screams and yells at Anne.
	44:10	Lights dim, sounds of a radio report about the war.
	45:30	Sounds of marching and soldiers yelling. Anne screams as she wakes up from a nightmare.
	50:40	Lights dim, sounds of explosions and air sirens.
	63:45	Crashing sound is heard below the Annex during the Hanukah celebration.
	66:55	Margo is upset and breaks down yelling.
	67:30	Lights go to a blackout.

ACT 2

Moment	Time	Description
	00:00	Lights go to a blackout.
	1:50	Mrs. van Daan screams as Mr. Dussel works on her teeth.
	11:00	Mr. and Mrs. van Daan argue about selling Mrs. van Daan's coat.
	34:35	Lights dim after the families go to sleep.
	35:30	Mrs. Frank yells at Mr. van Daan for stealing their food.
	37:25	Mr. Dussell and Margot argue over dividing up food rations. Mr. Frank throws a sack of potatoes towards Mr. Dussel.
	46:20	Lights go to a blackout as Mr. and Mrs. van Daan hold each other.
	48:00	German Soldiers enter into the Annex. The families scream as the soldier force them to leave.
	52:55	Lights dim and sounds of car sirens, then train whistles after the families have left the Annex.
	59:15	Lights go to a blackout.